BANKRUPTCY ATTORNEY TIMOTHY S. KINGCADE A KEY NOTE SPEAKER AT LAW REVIEW'S CLE SEMINAR ON CHAPTER 7 BANKRUPTCY

MIAMI – Bankruptcy attorney Timothy S. Kingcade, managing and founding partner of Kingcade & Garcia, P.A. (www.miamibankruptcy.com), was a recent key note speaker at Law Review's Chapter 7 Bankruptcy 101 CLE. The seminar took place on November 17th at the Westin Colonnade in Coral Gables, FL.

“Bankruptcy is about providing the client with the opportunity to make their life better and start over. Coming up with the money to file bankruptcy is worth getting a fresh start,” says Kingcade.

Kingcade walked attorneys through the entire Chapter 7 Bankruptcy process from start to finish. He addressed the following key components: Choosing whether to file a Chapter 7 or 13 bankruptcy, client interview and gathering information, means test, completing the petition, and finally, the 341 hearing.

Attorney Timothy S. Kingcade practices exclusively in the field of bankruptcy law, handling Chapter 7 filings and foreclosure defense cases for the Southern District of Florida. To compliment attorney Kingcade's extensive experience in bankruptcy law, he is also a certified public accountant (CPA), which provides him with a unique understand of how to handle tax-motivated bankruptcy cases against the IRS.
